The case information that is required to be gathered or sent out (documents) explicitly follows the steps and procedures as directed by Canon Law, reducing the number of procedural errors that can occur.

The Law : Canon 1095, 1° - Alcohol Intoxication

Canon 1055 §1 states:

The marriage covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of their whole life, and which of its own very nature is ordered to the well-being of the spouses and to the procreation and upbringing of children, has, between the baptized, been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament.

Canon 1056 states:

The essential properties of marriage are unity and indissolubility; in Christian marriage they acquire a distinctive firmness by reason of the sacrament.

Canon 1057 states:

A marriage is brought into being by the lawfully manifested consent of persons who are legally capable. This consent cannot be supplied by any human power.

Matrimonial consent is an act of the will by which a man and a woman by an irrevocable covenant mutually give and accept one another for the purpose of establishing a marriage.

Canon 1095, 1° states:

[The following are incapable of contracting marriage]: those who lack sufficient use of reason.

Canon 1096 §1 states:

For matrimonial consent to exist, it is necessary that the contracting parties be at least not ignorant of the fact that marriage is a permanent partnership between a man and a woman, ordered to the procreation of children through some form of sexual cooperation.

The Canonical System includes a Canon Law Research portal to help decision makers read through and research the law. Additionally, grounds are linked to the Canons for easy access. The Canons can be updated as needed and are accessed with a simple click.

Event driven protocol ensures that each case is ushered through the proper stages/steps and that all required information/documents are received or printed. As the events in a case change, Tribunal personnel are presented with only the task that is required to complete that particular stage – no guesswork, and all done by Canon Law! Tribunal personnel cannot move the case forward until all the required elements have been completed.

Canonical also keeps track of the number of days canonically allowed to complete each "case event" and visually notifies personnel assigned to that case. This methodology ensures the cases that need attention receive it quickly and assigned personnel know exactly which information is required to complete that particular stage or event.

Case Evidence Attachment

Each case you process could require the collection of dozens of pieces of evidence. Decision makers need to peruse the evidence of a case, tasking personnel to find files, check out and receive documents. Canonical makes this process simple and immediate. The Case Evidence portal allows the proper personnel to attach, remove and update evidence within, and to, a specific case. Each piece of evidence attached to a case can be called upon and viewed with just one click!

Multi-Threaded Outcomes

Some stages or events during Tribunal Case processing require information or responses from several disparate individuals (Petitioner / Respondent / Witnesses / etc.) or auxiliary procedures. The "outcome" of these disparate tasks can ultimately determine or influence the course of a Tribunal Case. Each of these potential outcomes become "Threads." Canonical waits the appropriate time (as prescribed by Canon Law) for each thread to come to a resolution. Depending upon the outcome of each thread and all threads combined the case will move to the next event as prescribed by Canon Law.

The screenshot displays the Canonical Tribunal Systems v2.0 interface. The top navigation bar includes the user name 'aburgess', a search field, and buttons for 'Retrieve', 'Queue', 'Home', and 'Logout'.
